We recommend that you use the Canibeeep Pro sound tracking collar on a dog at least 6 months old.

Train your dog to the sound of the Canibeeep Pro: firstly, the sound power can possibly frighten the dog.

To get used to the collar, turn down the volume and your dog will gradually become familiar with the sound.

When you equip your dog with the Canibeeep Pro collar, place the sound diffuser upwards so that the noise is not too close to his ears.

Switching on, changing the tone or even selecting the operating mode is done more easily before placing the collar around the dog's neck.

If you decide to train several dogs at the same time, we recommend that you program each collar with a separate sound in order to recognize the dogs (4 sounds to choose from on each collar).

We recommend not to put the collar on a dog in poor health (heart problems, epilepsy...) or with behavioral disorders.

Before putting on the collar, it is recommended to have your dog examined by a veterinarian to verify that there are no contraindications.
