6 vials to boost your attractant tar for For wild boars!

Black Fire's experience in tracking wild boars is well established. After observing that the wild boar tends to get used to the tar used in the hunting territory and that over time, it is less attracted by the smell, Black Fire therefore developed a booster that Simply mix with any liquid tar to obtain new aromas that will once again attract wild boar to you.

Sold per bottle containing 6 vials of 10ml

Sold to gunsmiths in boxes of 6 bottles of 6 vials, i.e. 36 vials.

Black Fire was developed by a professional wild boar hunter from Slovenia - Marko Gražner.

Marko is a hunter with over 30 years of hunting experience and specializes in wild boar hunting. After testing all the attractants on the market, he decided to create his own aroma. For several years, he tested different ingredients, densities, fine-tuned everything with the goal of making a good flavor that would be practical and inexpensive.
