18-29 Lbs variable power compound bow for young shooters.

- Adjustable power 18-29 pounds.
- Extension adjustable from 22 to 25" (by 1")
- Very compact: Center distance 27.5" (i.e. 70 cm)
- Bright-Glo 3-pin fiber optic sight.

Comes with 2 arrows and a quiver attached to the bow.

The Vortex Lite is a compound bow for tweens or teens; designed to grow with young archers as their skills and stature advance. Length and tension strength adjust with included modules and instructions, and the bow itself is equipped with all the features they need: oversized dual cams, three-prong fiber optic sight, three arrows fiberglass, two-piece attached quiver and more. Plus, they'll feel cool with an ornate Mossy Oak Break-Up Country bow, just like mom and dad.

- Modular adjustments based on the archer's stature and strength
- Draw length adjusts in 1" increments
- Draw weight adjusts from 18 to 29 lbs.
- Built to ATA/AMO standards
- Right-handed bow Clearance 60-70%
- All-New Look with Mossy Oak Break-Up Envelope
- Country 3-Pin "Bright-Glo" Fiber Optic Sight with Low-Light Visible Pins
- Oversized dual cam system
- Synthetic rope and cable system
- The package serves as a carrying case
- Adjustable arrow rest
